There are several options all of which will be costly. The cooling tower there now is not expected to have more than 10 years of life left. J. Siegel is interested in exploring an air-cooling system and also hopeful the Center can recapture some of the heat for use in the building. Estimates and options are forthcoming. Commissioners have requested regular updates regarding the scope of work and timelines. T. Griffith to stay in touch with B. Woodruff and J. Siegel to stay in touch with W. Discuss American Recovery Act and potential funding it may provide: W. Shepeluk explained the Federal government has released billions of relief dollars for municipalities. Originally believed to be $510,000.00 to the Town with some portion of that money allocated to EFUD it's now quite unclear how much money the Town will receive and the possibility exists that EFUD may receive its own money. W. Shepeluk will keep the Commissioners informed as more information becomes available.
