

AUGUST 26-28

A weekend of community events to celebrate the end of the Main Street reconstruction project and commemorate the 10 year anniversary of Tropical Storm Irene.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 26

4:00 pm - 7:00 pm: Waterbury Farmers Market

6:00 pm - 8:30 pm: Concert in the Park with the WDEV Radio Rangers

7:00 pm: Moment of silence to recognize the 10th Anniversary of Tropical Storm Irene

FRIDAY, AUGUST 27

4:30 pm: Live music from The Barn Band

5:00 pm: Speakers to highlight a decade of resilience

5:30 pm: Ribbon cutting across Main Street

5:45 pm: Unveiling of the Phoenix Rising public art project

SATURDAY, AUGUST 28

9:00 am and 1:00 pm: Historic walking tour of the Waterbury State Office Complex

10:00 am: Premiere of Waterbury Historical Society film on Tropical Storm Irene

10:00 am-1:00 pm: Waterbury History Center open and film showing in 20 minute loop

11:00 am: Historic walking tour of the Waterbury Train Station area

2:30 pm: Historic walking tour of the Stowe Street area

ONGOING ACTIVITIES

After Irene Floodgates Art Project Revisited at Axel's Gallery

Makersphere Art Activity • Sidewalk Sales • Restaurant Specials

WATERBURYWORKS.COM/CELEBRATE